

Rod and square section running systems are available in various lengths and bore sizes. These can be supplied with plain end running tubes of various Sizes.

Rod Covers and nozzles can also be supplied in a multitude of types.

'LITECAST' is designed to take large volumes of steel but be easily managed by operatives. Runs can be constructed easily using the pieces shown (right).

Please contact us with regards to available sizes.

Dyson Technical Ceramics™ can supply standard or bespoke teeming systems in a variety of qualities and sizes, a combination of which will satisfy most teeming requirements.

